

How is my behaviour?

What does this mean?

→	PERFECT! WOW! INCREDIBLE! IT DOESN'T GET MUCH BETTER THAN THIS! You are a star!
→	The big 'O'! You Must have done something special to get here! May be you have produced some amazing work, or shown great leadership skills or worked really well with others, Whatever it is, you have really impressed your teacher!
→	Wow, you are really doing well today! Excellent behaviour, trying really hard to do your best, a great example to the rest of the class, taking great pride in your work and being really polite and positive!
→	Now that you are in class you should be 'ready for learning'! You are sat properly, listening carefully, following instructions correctly, you have the right equipment, you are respecting others in class, your work is of a good standard and is neat!
→	Be careful! If you are not doing what is written above then you are not ready for learning and that's not good for you or the class. What can you do to get to green?
→	You are still not ready even though you have been warned! You need to think carefully about your behaviour.
→	Bad news. Are you still not listening to your teacher and respecting the class rules? Have you said something offensive to someone? This is unacceptable behaviour at Ambassador and this will be recorded. If you have used bad language or hit someone you go straight to Number 3 ....

What is going to happen?

→	You get your name in the 'Gold Book' and a special mention in Assembly. You might even get 'Star of the week!' Certificate.
→	Super Sticker!
→	Ask your teacher for a special privilege!
→	You will learn! You will feel great, your teacher will be happy and it will be great day!
→	Your teacher will help you understand why you are at this level and also let you know how to get back to green!
→	You will write down in the reflection book what you did, the reasons why you did it and how you can stop it happening again. Your teacher will let Counselor and the yearleader know about what happened. They might want to meet you.
→	1=You will meet your yearleader and Counselor, lose 10 minutes Golden Time or stay with your teacher for 5 min at break or lunch 2= You will meet with the and receive a detention and miss out on 20 mins Golden Time 3=You will meet with the Principal, we will contact your parents + detention
